

Genoveva Dimitrova
Bulgaria

Film critic | Editor | Lecturer

Biography

Genoveva Dimitrova PhD is one of the leading Bulgarian film critics.

Born in Pleven. She graduated Russian philology at SU St. Kliment Ochridski and Filmscience at NATFA Krastyo Sarafov.

Since 1990 she is editor Film at the Kultura weekly newspaper, where since 2000 she leads the column At first sight.

She is author of hundreds of publications in the public and specialized press. She has published two books: Cinema at the End of the Century/Bulgarian Figures and Feature Films. A Look From the 90s (1999) and Carousels of the Absurd. Russian Cinema (1991 - 2011).

Since 1995 she teaches at the New Bulgarian University. She is leading courses of lectures at the 2 master programs at SU.

Member of the Union of the Bulgarian Film Makers, Union of the Bulgarian Journalists and of FIPRESCI.

She has been nominated several times and she is rewarded with the prize for criticism'2006 of Union of the Bulgarian Film Makers. She has three nominations and she is the winner of the Bulgarian Film Academy award for theory'2011.